Rick Lass for PRC Campaign

Straight Party

It is important to get the word out about how to vote for a minor party candidate:

HOW TO VOTE

For a Minor Party of Independent Candidate

Fill in the oval for the candidate.

That does it! Even if you fill in a straight party oval.

Staffing the Campaign Office

Emily agreed to update the schedule of who will staff the office. The office will be open Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday. Suzanne will send an e-mail to ask for more volunteers to staff the office.

Tasks that can be done in the office include: calling for more campaign volunteers to help in the office or put up yard signs, contacting voters, keeping the office organized, having snacks/drinks available, taking out trash and cleaning up.

Voter Contact

Contacting voters by phone: lists will be available and volunteers are asked to make notes of who was called and what happened so we don't duplicate phone calling efforts.

Contacting voters door-to-door: Some people want to walk their own neighborhood without using a voter list. While this is helpful, it is better to use the voter list so we spend time with people who are registered to vote. Xubi will maintain the door-knocking list so it is easy to find registered voters in specific neighborhoods.

Green Party of New Mexico donation to Rick Lass Campaign

The Green Party of New Mexico donated $3,000 directly to Rick Lass's Campaign. Xubi will ask Sean Knight and Russell Tyldsley to get together and determine if additional funds will be coming from GPNM to Green Party of Santa Fe local.

The meeting was adjourned was at 8:00.
